

Cornerstone Society

Flexible Giving for a Strong Community

The Lubbock Area Foundation exists to help those who care about the Lubbock area to invest - at any level - in its future. The Foundation provides a simple, powerful, and highly personal approach to giving.

The Cornerstone Society

For those who have close ties to this area - whose children, grandchildren, employees and customers live here - who understand that giving back is an important part of personal and corporate citizenship, membership in the Cornerstone Society is a powerful and simple way to manage your charitable giving. With the Lubbock Area Foundation, making one gift that takes into consideration your circumstances, charitable goals and the needs of your community couldn't be easier.

Benefits of Membership

The Cornerstone Society provides the highest level of flexibility and simplicity for corporate and individual donors alike. One gift to the Lubbock Area Foundation can be specifically targeted to multiple charitable interests. Whether you have an interest in special event sponsorship opportunities or wish to target specific community needs, the choice is yours.

In addition to recognition in print publications and on the Foundation website, all members of the Cornerstone Society are also invited to be our guest at Foundation social and business events such as the holiday party, annual meeting and Foundation Nights.
